

Colorado Heights University

MBA Program

MBA in International Business

The Masters of Business Administration in International Business from Colorado Heights University is for students who want to be grounded in qualities that focus on creativity and innovation. You will focus on creating and managing sustainable businesses in the global context. Studying alongside peers from around the world, you will contribute to the global perspective. With an MBA in International Business from CHU, you'll receive the training necessary to excel in management positions on the global business economy.

Four Great Degree Specialties

- Accounting prepares students for accounting, tax accounting and financial auditing careers.
- Corporate Finance prepares students for accounting, corporate finance, money management, banking and financial analysis careers.
- Health Care Management prepares students for careers in health care finance, accounting, policy, marketing and information management.
- Environmental Management prepares students for careers in environmental economics, energy policy, sustainable products, services and business practices and sustainable management.

An MBA in International Business opens up a world of possibilities.

Courses include:

- International Management & Leadership
- Applied International Business Economics
- Global Strategic Marketing & Customer Service
- Business Internships

Colorado Heights University respects the importance of learning while doing and encourages hands-on field experience by allowing graduate credits to be earned while you're working. Courses have robust projects that push you to stretch yourself.

Program Learning Objectives

- Compete in a business context
- Solve real-world problems
- Respond to critical challenges and paradoxes
- Address managerial issues and business in the global context
- Focus on long-range strategic development

English Requirement

MBA classes are taught in English. Students must demonstrate sufficient proficiency in an English-speaking environment before admission to CHU.

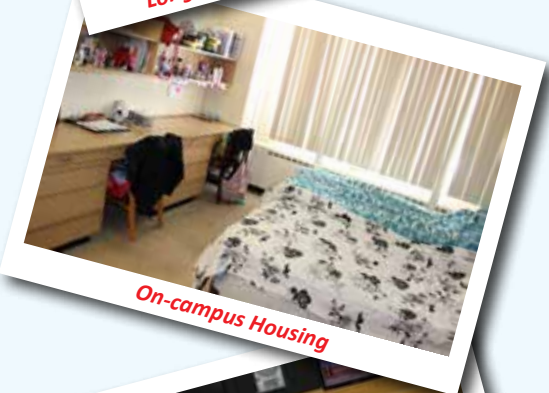

TOEFL-PBT: 550 TOEFL-CBT: 213 TOEFL-IBT: 79 IELTS: 7.0

Four Areas of Specialization

Long-range Strategic Development

On-campus Housing

Vibrant Student Life